

Workplace Consultation and HSR Forums 2024

Are you a Health and Safety Representative (HSR), safety committee member or worker looking to develop your WHS skills, network with others and discuss safety issues?

Join SafeWork NSW at one of our free regional Workplace Consultation and HSR Forums to:

Understand WHS legislation and consultation requirements, HSR powers and functions and use of Provisional Improvement Notices.

Navigate psychosocial hazards such as bullying, violence, preventing workplace sexual harassment and the benefits of good work design and practices.

Find out how to actively contribute to your workplace in meeting their WHS duties and keeping workers safe.

Learn more about the high-risk harms that lead to fatalities and serious injuries in workplaces: falls from height, forklifts, plant and working with electricity.

Discover the SafeWork Consultation toolkit and a range of reporting options available e.g. Speak Up App.

Network with other workers with a passion for workplace safety and local SafeWork NSW inspectors.

All industry and business sizes are invited to come along for the latest safety updates and information.
